Terms and Conditions for NI/IMCA CPD Online Course Modules

Please read carefully.

1. Accepting orders

The participant should register and pay online. The course purchase is confirmed when payment has been received by The Nautical Institute.

The course will be available on the EdApp account for a period of 12 months from day of purchase. After this time period, the course will no longer show on the account.

2. Cancellation and refunds

The Nautical Institute may consider offering a refund if the participant wishes to cancel their course. In order for this to be accepted The Nautical Institute will need to have received the cancellation request via email to courses@nautinst.org within 24 hours of purchase and before the course has been started on EdApp.

The full course fees will be refunded without any deductions if The Nautical Institute has to cancel the course due to any unforeseen circumstances.

3. External Sites

When using the EdApp application/website, the participant is subject to their terms and conditions

4. Payment

All payments to be made to The Nautical Institute under this Terms and Conditions shall be made in cleared funds, without any deduction or set-off and free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any taxes, levies, imports, duties, charges, fees and withholdings of any nature now or hereafter imposed by any governmental, fiscal or other authority save as required by law. If the candidate or company is compelled to make any such deduction, it will pay to The Nautical Institute such additional amounts as are necessary to ensure receipt by The Nautical Institute of the full amount which it would have received but for the deduction.

5. Copyright and database rights

All content included in the course, such as text, graphics, logos, button icons, images, audio clips, digital downloads, data compilations, and software is the property of The Nautical Institute and/or IMCA and is protected by United Kingdom and international copyright and database right laws.

6. Governing law and jurisdiction

These conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. All claims must submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
